

SOURCE 22

The Source 22 is the ultimate utility sportsboat with RAND's intelligent, functional and social design.

Whether powering through rough seas to quickly and safely get from A to B, or bringing your family out for a full day of water sports and social activities this spacious platform lets the passengers enjoy their favorite activity from sunbathing in the bow sunlounge, to eating lush meals around the picnic table or testing their watersports skills behind this incredible performance boat.

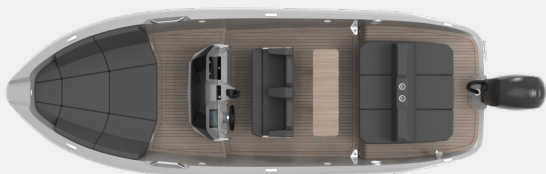

The 22-footer brings a completely new morphology to the boat industry. The aft part of the Source is shaped to provide a sleek and spacious design area for all the functional components.

The Source is a true spacious platform for all your activities ranging from having a lunch on the water or going for a cruise on the open waters.
